Supplemental Statement of Carlington Sales Canada Corporation;
Period Ending June 30, 2000; Registration Number 5347

Attachment to Item 15(a):

Re: Government of Armenia:

Registrant received a down payment of $50,000 from the Government of Armenia in 1999. During the first three months of 2000, registrant expended $59,500.00 in travel expenses, comprising five round-trips (air fare, room and board, and related travel expenses), Montreal to Yerevan, by Mr. Ben-Menashe, the president of registrant, to meet with officials of the foreign principal. However, the Government of Armenia never made the second or subsequent payments contemplated in the agreement between the parties, and, at the end of March 2000, registrant terminated its relationship with the foreign principal.

Re: Government of the Commonwealth of Doiminica:

During the period covered by this supplemental statement registrant expended $18,500.00 in travel expenses on behalf of the foreign principal, comprising four round-trips (air fare, room and board, and related travel expenses), Montreal to Bridgetown, by Mr. Ben-Menashe, the president of registrant, to meet with officials of the foreign principal.

In addition, the registrant arranged various meetings for the Prime Minister of Dominica with the U.S. Drug Enforcement Agency (in Arlington, Virginia), the International Monetary Fund (in Washington, D.C.), and the World Bank (in Washington, D.C.). No personnel of registrant attended these meetings, but they were arranged and scheduled by phone calls from registrant's offices. The relevant contact persons were: Michael J. Metrisko of the State Department, who arranged the DEA meeting; Monique Chagnon and Thomas E. Burns of the IMF; and Constantine Semionides-Tsatsos and Orsalia Kalantzopoulos of the World Bank. None of these discussions were substantive, only arranging for the meetings.

Insert to Short-Form Registration Statement of Stephane Goupil:

11. Describe separately and in detail all services which you will render to the foreign principal listed in Item 10 either directly, or through the primary registrant listed in Item 8, and the date(s) of such services.

All services will be rendered in my capacity as an employee of the primary registrant. The services will be those specified in the primary registrant's statement:

Upon consultation with appropriate officials of the Government of the Commonwealth of Dominica (hereinafter "GCD"), registrant will propose methods of communicating with appropriate U.S. and/or Canadian executive and legislative officials to achieve desired assistance, particularly with respect to the economic development of the GCD. Registrant will arrange and participate in meetings as advisable and will accompany and advise representatives of GCD at such meetings as it is appropriate for such representatives to attend.

My rendering of such services commenced in June 2000, and are expected to continue intermittently for approximately six months.

As noted in the statement of the primary registrant:

It is contemplated that registrant will be attempting, on behalf of the GCD, to encourage the U.S. and/or Canadian governments, as well as various international financial institutions, to make development and other grants and/or loans to the GCD. Some of these latter attempts may not involve the U.S. at all, but may involve the United Nations and related international financial institutions. To the extent necessary, the efforts with respect to U.S. and/or Canadian aid may also encompass relations with members of the legislative branch, whenever departmental approvals of assistance to the GCD may require congressional approval as well. Virtually all of this assistance will be through meetings and the presentation of materials and information on behalf of the foreign principal.

12. All of the activities described above include political activity as defined in the Act. The details are described in the preceding answer.
